"Since 1963, The Fort has been serving and supporting the families who grow and produce amazing wines from around the world as well as from Colorado and California. In the Fall, I travel to Napa Valley to visit our close family friends, the Duncan family who own Silver Oak and Twomey Cellars; Delores and Jack Cakebread, who founded Cakebread Cellars, and also Joseph Phelps, to taste, buy and collect their amazing rare released wines. The Duncan and Joseph Phelps families came from Colorado. Here is a sample of some of our best finds to share with you! Enjoy!"

- Holly Arnold Kinney- Proprietress of The Fort

Cabernet Sauvignon

Bin 717  Joseph Phelps, Insignia,
Napa Valley, California, 2012

$350

Inky dark hue and aromas of ripe blackberries, star anise, cigar box, clove and sweet mocha notes. Richly opulent with velvety texture and supple tannins, this full-bodied offering envelops the palate in luscious, lingering black plum and violets along with layers of baking spices.
Proprietress Selections

Pinot Noir

Bin 592 Twomey Cellars,
Anderson Valley, California, 2012
This wine has a dark cherry-red color and a nose of rose petals, very ripe strawberries, cut hay and toffee. It has a juicy entry followed by a creamy texture and a hint of minerality on the finish.

Bin 594 Twomey Cellars, Soberanes Vineyard,
Santa Lucia Highlands, California, 2012
Dark color, bright fruit expression and great tannic structure. This wine has a dark, cherry-red color and a nose of violets, nectarines and cocoa powder with a hint of graphite. It has a fruity, bright attack and a velvety mid-palate that builds in intensity to a long, moderately tannic finish.

Bin 536 Twomey Cellars, Monument Tree Vineyard,
Anderson Valley, California, 2012
Moderate reddish purple color in the glass. Aromas of strawberry, cherry, spice box and smoky oak become more effusive over time. Juicy flavors of black cherry and ripe strawberry with a hint of spice are easy to like. Appealing finesse and harmony, with fine tannins, refreshing acidity and a bright finish.

Bin 610 Twomey Cellars, Bien Nacido Vineyard,
Santa Maria Valley, California, 2012
Moderately light reddish-purple color in the glass. A number of aromas jump out of the glass, including black cherry, black currant, baking spice and toasty oak. Sleek and satiny on the palate, with flavors of red cherries, raspberries, pomegranates, cola and vanilla.
210  Cottonwood Cellars, Colorado, 2016
$30
Lovely blush color and slightly Off Dry. Very fruity with light cherry taste.
Colorado Selections

Cabernet Sauvignon / Meritage

527  Colterris, Grand Valley, 2017
This wine is rich with hints of violets and plums.

520  Cottonwood cellars, Palisade, 2016
This full bodied Cabernet has currant, raspberry, blackberry, cherry and light smoky oak on the nose, all of which repeat on the palate, and finish intense. Color is rich and almost black. Well balanced and integrated.

510  Infinite Monkey Theorem, The Blind Watchmaker, Grand Valley, NV
Offers loads of crushed berry on the nose with undertones of wet earth, tobacco and green tea. Full-bodied, with big, round tannins and plenty of fruit. Balanced and luscious.

596  The Winery at Holy Cross Abbey, Palisade, 2017
Full of bright red and black berry fruit with big sweet oak and hints of dark cherry in the finish.

American Whites

Chardonnay

227 Cakebread Cellars,
Napa Valley, California, 2016
$98
Enchanting floral and golden apple aromas introduce pure, concentrated melon, white peach and lively citrus flavors complemented by hints of vanilla and mineral. Rich and full-bodied, yet elegant and finely structured, the wine boasts a long, refreshing finish highlighting spiced apple and mineral tones.

200 Kendall-Jackson, Vintner’s Reserve,
California, 2018
$35
Tropical flavors such as pineapple, mango and papaya, with citrus notes. Aromas of vanilla and honey. A hint of toasted oak and butter.

204  La Crema,
Russian River Valley, California, 2018
Apricot, lemon, Gala Apple, subtle oak and spice aromas. Lemon drop, white stone fruit, yellow plum and Galia Melon flavors. Richly textured and concentrated with a balanced acidity that drives a lingering finish.
$58

233  La Crema,
Sonoma Coast, California, 2017
Apricot, lemon, Gala Apple, subtle oak and spice aromas. Lemon drop, white stone fruit, yellow plum and Galia Melon flavors. Richly textured and concentrated with a balanced acidity that drives a lingering finish.
$47

201  Sonoma Cutrer, Russian River Ranches,
Sonoma Coast, California, 2017
Aromas with hints of light floral notes. Scents of Bosc pear and Honeycrisp apple are accentuated with notes of nougat, roasted nuts, oak spice and a touch of citrus blossom. The wine is beautifully focused on the palate with flavors of crisp, zesty lemon, green apple, lime and barrel spice. The wine rounds out with our signature citrus acidity and a nicely balanced long, flavorful finish.
$53

205  Sterling Vineyards,
Napa Valley, California, 2016
Luminous, light gold color in the glass with fragrant aromas of fresh lemon creme, citrus, crisp apple and toasted hazelnut. The inviting nose leads to a richly textured palate with flavors of citrus, stone fruit and a honey almond character. The wine is well-balanced between an elegant, creamy roundness and a line of bright acidity. The pleasing finish is persistent and flavorful.

Conundrum,

California, 2016

A blend of Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Semillon, Muscat Canelli and Viognier. It lures you in with scents of apricot, pear and honeysuckle, and if you’re paying attention, orange and lemon meringue pie. Initial sweetness is balanced by natural acidity, and we love the hint of oak that plays with flavors of peach, apple and citrus.

Chardonnay

208  Joseph Drouhin, Meursault, 2017
A beautiful golden color and great aromatics of honey, linden flower (tilleul), hazelnut butter, sometimes even chamomile or hawthorn. On the palate, a silky roundness. Long on the aftertaste, with flavors of yellow plum and gingerbread.

219  Louis Latour, Les Genievres, Macon - Lugny, 2018
Pale yellow color and an aromatic nose of citrus fruit. The mouth is ample and offers delicious musky flavors with a beautiful intensity in final.

223  Louis Latour, Puligny – Montrachet, 2017
Pale yellow color with green hints. The nose is ethereal and floral with notes of fresh walnut. A lot of freshness in the mouth and a nice tension on the finish. Lovely mellow oaky hints.

Gewurztraminer

214  Trimbach, Alsace, 2016
A unique wine with notes of cinnamon, nutmeg, lychee and rose petals. It is in Alsace that this grape variety reaches the height of perfection. This wine is rich, intense, luscious and well balanced with a dry, spicy finish.

Pinot Gris

217  Trimbach, Alsace, 2015
Pales straw with green reflections. Rich and concentrated, with white flower and apricot notes. Smooth, medium-bodied with good fruit acidity.
Imported Whites

French

Riesling

203  Trimbach,
     Alsace, 2014
     Beautiful straw color with green edges. This Riesling has a fine mineral fragrance with ginger, caraway seed, underripe pineapple and flowers.
     Flavors of white peach, quince and lemon on the palate with a lingering, clean and dry finish.

Sauvignon Blanc

221  Pascal Jolivet,
     Sancerre, 2018
     This wine is fresh, clean and screaming with racy acidity. On the palate it is fresh and tightly wound; acidity is tempered by very subtle residual sugar; very clean; alive, racy, youthful. Overall, a dry and elegant wine.

German

Riesling

228  Dr. Loosen, Dr. L,
     Mosel, 2019
     Really juicy with a ton of apple and pear character. A very crisp finish. Yes, there is also has some sweetness in there, but the balance is spot-on.
Imported Whites

Sauvignon Blanc

231 Babich, Black Label
Marlborough, New Zealand, 2019
Elegant and intense nose - a dance of blackcurrant/passionfruit and complex smoky herbals. Textured and very long palate with exuberant, yet integrated, fruit. Citrus notes and flint add drive. Layered and powerful.

224 Cloudy Bay,
Marlborough, 2016
A vibrant mix of kaffir lime, lemon zest and nectarine aromatics intermingle with the bright perfume of orange blossom on the nose. The palate brimming with ripe citrus and stone fruit flavours that are framed by sleek and succulent acid architecture.

215 Nautilus Estates,
Marlborough, 2018
Intense aromas of passionfruit skin, elderflower, and hints of honeydew melon. The palate introduces a delightful lime/citrus based mouth-watering intensity and finishes with a strong textural component.

612 Caravan, by Darioush,
Napa Valley, California, 2018
Decadent flavors of plum, fig jam, blackberry compote, and chocolate ganache on a silky, sleek frame. Notes of spiced chai, dried currants, and cinnamon add intrigue, harmonizing with the wine's core profile of Cabernet Sauvignon. Bright, energetic, and exceptionally round and concentrated.

579 Charles Krug Winery,
Napa Valley, California, 2016
Flavors of ripe black cherry, blackberry and black currant with hints of dried blueberry and cocoa. A sturdy structure and generous black fruits lend definition to a long, memorable finish.

121 Clayhouse Winery,
Paso Robles, California, 2017
Deep purple / dark red color. Aromas of dark Bing cherries and black currents, with hints of cedar and sweet vanilla. The wine is full-bodied. It has sweet black cherry and ripe plum fruit flavors with licorice undertones. This Cabernet Sauvignon has tannins that are rounded and smooth. It finishes with warm toasty notes.

Intense yet fresh with juicy blue and black notes. Notes of dark chocolate and dried herbs seduce the palate while silky tannins and lifting acidity leads to a layered and lingering finish.

668 Flora Springs, Trilogy,
Napa Valley, California, 2015
Bold, rich and highly extracted, this generous red is packed with boysenberry, black cherry, dark plum and black currant layered with milk chocolate, vanilla bean, cola and a hint of earthy cedar. Seasoned French and American oak adds just the right amount of toasty warmth, and the wine's tannins.

559 Frank Family Vineyards,
Napa Valley, California, 2017
Opens to inviting aromas of dark plum and cherries, unfolding into oak tones of cinnamon and graphite. On The palate flavors of hazelnut, cloves, and intense berry fruit with brilliant acidity on the finish, providing an intriguing and full-flavored experience.

513 Grgich Hills,
Napa Valley, California, 2014
Complex aromas of black fruits, rich leather and nuances of violets burst out of the glass. Its full-bodied, rich mouthfeel carries these flavors for a long, lingering finish.

506 Inglenook Vineyards, CASK,
Napa Valley, California, 2013
On the nose, black cherries, strawberries, and raspberries create a rich perfume that's enlivened by notes of violets and baking spices. There's an exceptional balance of ripeness, not overdone or underdone, enhanced by moderate acidity, even development on the palate, and impressions of blueberry cream and black raspberries. This wine is meaty. Supple, long lasting tannins frame richly textured flavors that linger on the finish.

Juicy red berry old vine Grenache fruit presents itself on the front palate whilst the Mourvedre and Shiraz provide structure, concentration and depth.
Hints of white pepper, spice and depth are edent with a soft tannin framework ensuring a supple, soft texture to finish.
Penfolds Bin 389, South Australia, 2018

Bright, crimson red color. The nose is lifted, fragrant and immediately Penfolds. Aromas like that of layers of custard and port-wine dark jelly with flaked coconut and juniper/cassis. Or old-fashioned hummingbird cake, with coconut flakes and nutty flavors. The palate is a balance of the sweet (Cabernet) and the savory (Shiraz). Darker fruits – closer to that of a black cherry liqueur than a crème de cassis component of Kir. Oak and tannins absorbed. Both are certainly present,

A deep but glossy red in the glass, attractive boysenberry and violets benefit from understated generosity of oak and fresh liquorice. A medium to full bodied wine with a core of fine tannin that's filamentsed with blackberry and blueberry fruit and held in suspension by crunchy acidity. Oak, earth, dark chocolate and plum fruit frame the finish.
678  Cousino – Macul, Finis Terrae, Maipo Valley, 2012  $60
    Totally opaque black dark red colour with a deep dark red black tinged hue. Perfumed aromas of ripe blackcurrants and dark mulberry laced with hints of violets are followed by nuances of cigar box, faint earthy tobacco and spice. Full bodied the palate possesses magnificent fruit richness in combination with finesse and refinement. Generous flavours of ripe blackcurrant, dark cherries and mulberries flood the mouth over a back drop of cedar, light earthy tobacco and spice.

641  Concha y Toro, Marques de Casa Concha, Puente Alto, 2017  $55
    Rich, featuring fleshy dark fruit flavors supported by firm tannins and acidity. Notes of hot stone show midpalate, with accents of dried meat, savory herb and Asian spice on the finish.

627  Miguel Torres, Reserve, Curico Valley, 2015  $37
    A darkly pigmented wine with an intense, full and very fruity aroma. The palate is majestically structured - velvety, meaty and with elegant body. Its smooth, fine tannins, outlined by new oak.
